

Abstract of the Invention

A methodology is provided for facilitating authentication of a service. The methodology includes making a request to a first party for authentication of a service, the request including a first alias. A list of aliases associated with the service is then searched
5 enabling a second party making the request to access the service if a match is found between the first alias and at least one alias of the list of aliases.

10

\\SBSTPA\shared\HAM\MSET\p113usa\MS139778.2v2.doc

15

004240"6209560